

WHO INHERITED GIFTS?

Those who inherit are heirs, and we know who they are according to our laws. If we talk about a father and a son, for example, we can understand that the son receives everything that belongs to his father. Even his genetic code. The son inherits from the moment of his conception.

Using our own language, then, we can answer the title... God is the Father and we are the Son. At the moment of our Creation, we received everything that belonged to Him. Created in His Image and Likeness and 'so on and so forth'... and that's it!

We don't believe that. We believe in some other 'so on and so forth'. Each of us has chosen our own 'so on and so forth' to identify with and, with that, continue to deny everything we could call our inheritance.

Who inherited Gifts? The holy Son of God inherited all His Strength, all His Light, all His Holiness, and that is why He is only Love.

Now think of all the possible ramifications of the Purest Love. They also belong to the Son of God. If we think in legal terms, according to our laws, we only need to identify ourselves as heirs in order to receive what is due to us. We present our identity, recognised by a document, and then everything is formalised.

Jesus teaches us exactly the same Truth. It is already done. By Identity. By Who We Are. No signature. No registration. No formal proof... Heaven knows you well (T-19.IV.A6:2).

Do we want it? We say yes, still without much conviction. And as long as we do not remember our true Identity and continue to desire the illusion of 'being' without Being in God, His Answer, eternally sane, will dwell within our own insanity. His Answer will always be in the place where our desire for fulfilment leads us. It will always be in our freedom.
