

DOUBT OR QUESTIONING

What is doubt?

What is questioning?

If they were two inner voices, what would each one say to you?

What movement does each one awaken in you?

Does doubt resist or listen?

Does questioning paralyse or invite?

What is the real motivation behind each one?

Fear or desire?

What does each offer as a result?

Distance or clarity?

Confusion or revelation?

And if there were two masters,

one called Jesus, the other called ego,

which would doubt follow?

And questioning, Whom would it serve?
