

RECEIVE THE MIRACLE
THE GOAL OF SEPARATION

The Holy Spirit works precisely with what we give Him. If, for whatever reason, we decide to do it on our own, He waits for the true desire to communicate and unite with God's Will to flow within us. And God's Will is Divine Completeness. Nothing else.

Imagine someone who knows how to change light bulbs perfectly. They identify the type, socket and compatible voltage; they turn off the switch, wait for the bulb to cool down, remove the old bulb and fit the new one with dexterity. Does this give them the competence to plan, implement or supervise electrical installations? No. Knowing how to change light bulbs will not make you an electrical engineer. What does this mean? That Correction is not our function. It belongs to the One Who knows Innocence, not guilt. And while we remain in the role of Correction, we distance ourselves from our only function: to remember Who we are. And this is only possible through the Practice of Forgiveness, which is essentially communicating with the Holy Spirit so that He may fulfil His Mission. So that we may all, through Him, return to the Father.

Kindly abandon the practice of directing Correction outward, toward someone we believe is not part of us. As long as there is perception, there will be projection. And Correction will inevitably be a desire directed at the 'sins' of the other... and the sins of the other, from our perspective, become the whole.

As long as we decide to 'make' apart from God, ignoring our Holiness, we avoid looking at our mistakes, preserving the goal of separation. There is no Healing. There is no Liberation. And the being will continue to be perceived as divided: on one side, what we believe ourselves to be; on the other, a constant, lonely void impregnated with guilt.

*The Holy Son of God is not one side.
He is not a fragment.
He is Whole.
He is the One Whom the Father watches with Certainty in His inevitable awakening.*

EXERCISE 19.10.25

Surrender!

Trust in the Mission of the Holy Spirit. Practise changing all your lamps with skill. Nothing will remain without Purpose.

An empty space that is not seen as filled, an unused interval of time not seen as spent and fully occupied, become a silent invitation to the truth to enter, and to make itself at home (T-27.III.4:1).

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

We are a Thought in God's Mind. A Thought as creative and holy as the Mind that created It. When, in Freedom, we choose any unloving thought, we separate ourselves... as if we left the Father's House to imagine another 'home'. A place where we allow ourselves to be apart from our Creator just to think without Love. But... a Thought never leaves the Mind; there we are, dreaming, safe from this insane idea we call ego. We never leave our Father's House. And that is the only Truth. Everything else is illusion. Now, it is always the Moment to ask ourselves: on the balcony of which House am I sitting? From which window, in which House, do I look at the Sky? Which garden do I share with my Father?
