

GOD DOESN'T WANT HEAVEN TO BE INCOMPLETE

We don't walk the path to Heaven alone. Jesus is present—always joyful, patiently devoted, and certain of our journey—because He knows that our Being knows only Love and is perfectly consistent in all Its Thoughts. He knows that our Being knows Its Creator because It understands Itself and never changes Its constant state of Union with Its Father and, therefore, with Itself. He already knows...

And because He already knows, so do we. All forgetfulness comes from our current practice of forgetting. Jesus invites us, at all times, to change this practice - from the practice of forgetting to the practice of remembering.

GOD IS BUT LOVE, AND THEREFORE SO AM I.

May these words become our goal, our gift to Jesus and, therefore, a thought practised by us, in Christ, so that we bless the world. May these words become our practice for remembering a world free of all illusions.
