

RECEIVE THE MIRACLE IF IT IS ALIVE, IT HAS A FATHER

"Examine evidence..." – a request that sometimes seems so unreal to me... How can you remain faithful to justice when your mind has already distorted the Truth so that everything around you only proves the foundations of the ego? So that everything sustains the dream?

So, examine your feelings... but not to seek or prove anything. Just to observe... in perfect honesty. In Silence. Just for yourself. If they still ask you to ignore them... get up. Go for a walk. But if they ask you for nothing, observe them. They are yours. They are effects of your thoughts. They are the children of the divided mind. Fragments of separate thought, which believe they exist on their own... without a Father. They are the evidence... divided and separate, just as your mind thinks it is.

This is Grace. Our children – each of our thoughts – are our Grace. And in them is Completeness. In them is Wholeness. That is the Purpose.

The very moment we observe as the Father observes the Son – without judgement, without defence, without separation – nothing will seem unreal anymore, much less will Truth be far from Justice. Fatherhood will no longer involve conflict.

What seems insane to you, when observed in perfect honesty, in Silence... that is where Healing lies. This is the divided thought. This is the separated son. This is the one who will remind you of Creation by Extension. And now, before your image and likeness, live the Holy Instant. Rest in It! Receive the Gifts of Fatherhood.

My brother, you are part of God and part of me. When you have at last looked at the ego's foundation without shrinking you will also have looked upon ours. I come to you from our Father to offer you everything again. Do not refuse it in order to keep a dark cornerstone hidden, for its protection will not save you. I give you the lamp and I will go with you. You will not take this journey alone. I will lead you to your true Father, Who hath need of you, as I have.

Will you not answer the call of love with joy? (T-11.1.4:1)

EXERCISE 14.12.25

Recognise each of your thoughts as your children. Welcome them. They reveal the Truth. Your thoughts reveal Healing and will no longer sustain the illusion that there is not a single Creator for all of existence extended in each of us.

MIRACLE AT ONE THE ONE WHO SEARCHES, FINDS!

What is silence to the mind? A lack? A lack of what to do, a lack of what to think? To a distracted mind, Silence may even seem like abandonment of itself and, therefore, of everything we have built and everything we judge essential to what we have chosen as reality.

Silence will never be the absence of thought. This is impossible, since Unity is a fact. And since Unity is the only Truth, a Thought never abandons the Mind that created It. Thus, we are all eternally in God, effects of His Love, of the Father, of the Extensive Force of Creation. Here, lack is inconceivable. It was never conceived by God and therefore does not exist. And why do we desire lack? Why do we insist on inventing it? Why do we seek lack when Miracles are offered to us?

Insanity: that is our entire deception. If lack still attracts us, we are still distracted, deceived by some insane belief, forgetful of the Force of God eternally present in our consciousness. And absolutely everything we believe we experience without recognising the one Cause extended to all Creation is insane. It is insane not to trust the Mind of God, in the stillness of our own Holiness; it is insane not to trust Silence. It is insane to fear Him.

Those who seek desire to find and can, finally, allow themselves to find. And the permission for the Extension not to seem like a kind of isolation, much less a discontinuity, lies in the recognition that Will, Desire, is Unity. It will always be Divine and never alien to absolutely anything He thinks in all our Existence.

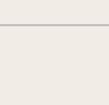

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

THE VOICE

Attention is the microphone of the voice. It radiantly expresses only those thoughts that we believe to be truly important. So... since the Flow of Creation is one, since only Love extends in the Mind of God, which system of thought do you choose to practise attending to? Which thoughts is your attention amplifying?

Recognise the Continuous, the Infinite, the Eternal in each of these thoughts perceived by your attention. Practise observing 'who is holding the microphone'. Is your attention focused on the Divine Flow or entertained by the fragments projected by the illusion of each of the beliefs still perceived by this mind?
